Warren H. Williams Performing Music in the Park

One of Australia's most loved country singers, Warren H. Williams, will be lighting up the stage when he performs under the starry sky at the Alice Springs Desert Park (ASDP) Music in the Park event this Friday, 5 March 2010.

ASDP Sales and Marketing Manager Estelle Marshall said this is the first time Warren H Williams and his band have played at Music in the Park showcasing their original country music.

"Warren has recently returned from Tamworth Music Festival where he performed at the Capitol Theatre and West Leagues Club during the week of events," Mrs Marshall said.

"Warren's songs from his recent album Looking Out touch on core Australian and family values – its traditional country with a touch of soul.

"Country music is in Warren's blood, largely due to the influences of his father, country music legend Gus Williams, and fellow country singer Darryl Kantawarra.

"Warren is an Arrente speaking man and one of Australia's favourite country music singer songwriters.

"Sitting amidst Central Australia's magnificent native flora and fauna with the stunning West MacDonnell Ranges as a backdrop and a starry sky above makes for a truly remarkable experience.

"The Desert Park provides unique and entertaining evenings for locals and visitors to enjoy, while gaining an appreciation for our natural environment."

Enjoy dinner or a drink before the film at the Coolamon Café from 5pm while the sun sets over the West MacDonnell Ranges.

The Amphitheatre opens at 7pm with the concert commencing at 7.30pm.

Tickets will be sold on the night and cost $15 per Adult and $10 per Child.

Please note seats are limited so get in early.
