Music in the Alice Springs Desert Park

The West MacDonnell ranges will be alive with the sounds of music when blues and roots musicians perform at the Alice Springs Desert Park this Friday 19 September 2008.

ASDP Manager Gary Fry said locals and visitors will be able to enjoy an evening under the stars listening to original music from Dan Haynes, Herman Marcic and friends in the Park's Nature Theatre.

"The ASDP boasts a spectacular setting and facilities for hosting evenings such as this," Mr Fry said.

"With the stunning West MacDonnell ranges as a backdrop, a starry sky above and sitting amongst Central Australia's magnificent flora and fauna it makes for a truly unique experience.

"This is the first time Dan Haynes, Herman Marcic and friends have played Music in the Park showing off their original music."

Mr Fry said Music in the Park is held twice a year and usually attracts audiences of more than 100 people.

"The ASDP strives to provide interesting and entertaining evenings for locals and visitors to enjoy that provides a unique alternative," Mr Fry said.

Tickets cost $15 per Adult and $10 per Child, or $10 for Territorian Pass holders, and will be sold on the night. Please note seats are limited.

Café and bar facilities are open from 6pm and gates open at 7.15pm with the concert commencing at 7.30pm.
